*"I tend to paint very private places for the viewer to own and enjoy;
no people, no houses,
no telegraph poles - just the driftwood of an ebb tide, mist tumbling on a distant hilltop and silence broken only by lapping water and gulls ascending."*

Seaspectrum Philip Raskin

The luminous landscapes and seascapes of Philip Raskin magically capture the textures, moods and changeable light of his native Scotland. His romantic view of the world includes no evidence of human life, but invites the viewer to experience complete immersion in the image.

This event represents a rare opportunity to come and chat to Philip about his life and work and to have your artwork personalised.

Philip's stunning work is available from £195 for a framed Canvas Edition and between £995 and £5400 for framed Original Paintings.
